NEW GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—The bill prepared by Manager P. B. Chase for the New Grand next week has on its face the fullest evidence that it has been devised with the same intelligent appreciation of the demands of Washington audiences that has marked the preparation of the best bills seen here this season. It will introduce Robert Hilliard, the eminent New York favorite, and his own supporting company, in the romantic one-act episode entitled "The Littlest Girl," as dramatized by Mr. Hilliard from Richard Harding Davis notel story, "Her First Appearance." A daring novelty will be provided by Leo Dervalto, the spiral ascensionist, a recent imvalte, the spiral ascensionist, a recent im-portation from Europe, who is reputed to be ne of the leading foreign vaudeville attrac tions. Lizzie Evans, the well-known star, and Harry Mills will give their diverting comedy sketch, "Two Girls and One Man," Violet Dale, the singing and daneing comedienne, will prove a most agreeable feature. The Raymond musical trio, unequaled in their sphere, will furnish a much-liked specialty. Ray L. Royce, the well-known impersonator, will offer a monologue and minicry that has established him securely as a favorite. Thompson's dog "Yankee" is the concluding number. Camille d'Arville will be the attraction week after next.

JOHN KERNELL IN "THE HUSTLER." John Kernell, in "The Hustler," will ap-pear at the Academy of Music next week Fun is the element which most theater goers seek. One of the best offerings in this line is "The Hust er" in its latest at-tire. It is a rollicking and roaring farce comedy, full of sharply-drawn and broad-ly defined characterization and replete with y defined characterization and replete with repartee. In launching it anew this sea-son nothing but the name has been re-tained. No pretentions are made to plot, incorporated in this farcical play is a long line of novel and variegated specialties, prominent among which are the newest songs, dances and witticisms of the day.

THE CHORAL BOCIETY.—Miss Sara Anderson, one of the two sopranos whom the Choral Society has engaged for its operatic composers' concert of Friday next, is of New York and is well known in mustical chreles, having sung, as a concert soloist, with both Dr. Leopold Damrosch and Walter Damrosch. Miss Anderson's first triumph in this country was made in the Worcester festival on September 28, 1888. She is a member of the Musical Art and Oratorio Societies of New York, under Mr. Frank Damrosch, and has studied in New York with excellent teachers and subsequently in Paris with Douhe. She also THE CHORAL SOCIETY.-Miss Sara took a year with Georg Henschel to perfect herself in the art of song singing.

Miss Mary Helen Howe, soprano, is a Washington girl, born and reared in this city, and Washington can, therefore, claim her as its product. Miss Howe's volce is marked by unusual flexibility in the upper register and by a rich volume of tone in the middle and lower registers. Besides doing a great deal of concert work she has been connected with the Metropolitan English Opera Company, Herman Grau, manager, and the International Opera Company, headed by Mme, Clementine De Vere, With both of these she was decidedly successful. Her repertoire includes the leading soprano parts in "Faust," "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Romeo and Juliet," "Il Trovatore," "Rigoletto," "Martha," "Lucia," "The Bohemian Girl" and several of the soprano roles in lighter operas. She has sung the soprano role in Rossini's "Stabat Mater" and Handel's "Messiah," the former recently at the Church of the Transfiguration in Brooklyn. At Mrs. McKinley's invitation she recently sang at the White House, and was warmly compilmented by both the President and Mrs. McKinley.

she recently sang at the White House, and was warmly compilmented by both the President and Mrs. McKinley.

Miss Mabelle Louise Bond, contralto, is one of the youngest, as well as most prominent, of the concert contraltos of New York. A Vermonter by birth, but now a resident in New York, she has there held important solo positions in leading choirs, such as those of the Middle Collegiate Reformed Church and the First Church of Christ, Scientist. Her repertoire is most varied, including oratorio, opera and French, German and Italian songs. It is in dramatic work that she is most successful. Her voice is at once brilliant and deep, its compass very extensive and of wide range of expression. Her rendition of Lehmann's "Persian Garden" has been particularly admired. Miss Bond is one of the leading members of the Musical Art Society of New York, and she comesto Washington with the warm commendation of Mr Ersak Demrosch its conductor. to Washington with the warm commenda-tion of Mr. Frank Damrosch, its conductor.

LAST BISCHOFF CONCERT .- The can-LAST BISCHOFF CONCERT.—The cantata. "The Ancient Mariner," by Barnet, formed the second part of the fourth Bischoff concert of the season, given last night to an immense audience in the First Congregational Church. The soloists of the cantata were Mrs. Hattle Meads Smith, soprano; Miss Edna Scott Smith, contralto; Mr. Douglas D. Miller, tenor, and Mr. J. Walter Humphrey, bass. The choruses were rendered by the full choir of the church. The production was one of the most ambitious undertaken at any of the Bischoff concerts this season. The excellent rendition called forth continuous and enthusiastic applause. The first part of enthusiastic applause. The first part of enthusiastic applause. The first part of the program was interesting. Prof. Blsch-off rendered an organ solo, the march and chorus from Tannhauser. Miss Cecella Sullivan sang a Verdi aria. and Mr. Miller and Mrs. Elsie Bond Bischoff were heard in a Gounod duet. Major John Tweedale recited several selections including Kip-ling's "Absent-minded Beggar."

PADEREWSKI'S CONCERT.-The sale PADEREWSKI'S CONCERT.—The sale of seats for Paderewski's appearance on Friday afternoon, May 4, at the Columbia, is progressing splendidly and leaves no doubt in the minds of the management that Paderewski's farewell appearance in America will be attested by a house that will fill the Columbia up to the roof. The program, while not yet announced, is to be a Chopin one entirely, and one that will meet with the approval of the many lovers of Chopin's work. The two things which make Paderewski's piaying uniqué are his peculiar temperament and his peculiar pedaling. Nobody pedals as does Paderewski, his holding of tones to cause them to sing long after the idea represented by them has enholding of tones to cause them to sing long after the idea represented by them has entered the mind, is his secret. It is this more than force which makes his playing so finished and colored, what people call orchestral. His technical instruction and the method by which he was taught to be able to express his feelings play also an important part.

MUSICALE AT ALL SOULS CHURCH. ACSICALE AT ALL SOULS CHURCH.—A musicale for the beneit of Unity Mission of All Souis' Church will be given at the chapel, 14th and L streets, tomorrow evening. The participants will include some well-known singers, and the program will be attractive.

EXCURSIONS.

The fourteenth year of River View as the popular family excursion resort of Washington will be inaugurated next Sunday. Sunday dates, Capt. Randall this year has been compelled to give up the usual opening complimentary excursion, and the season will open with the first of the series of German society excursions, that of the Hessen-Darmstaedter Verein. Since the close of last season many new trees have been set out in the River View park, and been set out in the River View park, and the various amusements and buildings have been thoroughly overhauled and repainted and are ready to give pleasure. The steamer Pentz has just come from under the hands of the painters and is new and fresh looking as if just from the builder's hands. The trips next Sunday will be made at 11 a.m., 2:45 and 5:45 p.m., and the return trips will be at 1, 5, 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. On all the trips of the steamer and on the grounds in the afternoon the View Orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Chris Arth, jr., will render sacred music.

For Cruelty to Animals.

Abraham Patton was before the Police Court today charged with cruelty to animals. He had attached to a fish wagon this morning a young horse which had recently been operated on, and Agent Rabbitt of the Humane Society charged that it was cruelty to work it so soon afterward. The de-fendant contended that the animal was not injured by drawing the light wagon. Judge Scott fined him $10, which he paid.

A young colored man named Henry Tay-ler was fined $5, also for cruelty to animals. It was alleged by Agent Rabbitt that he worked an old horse that was unfit for labor.

Child Burned by Acid.

eighteen-months-old son of Jefferson D. Newton, superintendent of the Anacostia division of the Washington Traction Company, who lives at 430 Jackson street Anacostia, was last evening seriously burned about the throat, mouth and lower limbs by the spilling of a quantity of carbolic acid from a bottle. The child went to a closet and picked up the bottle which contained the acid. He placed it to his lips and some of the contents ran out upon person, producing very painful inju-tives at first thought the child had ries. It was at first inought the child had swallowed some of the poison, but that is now regarded as doubtful. After treatment by a physician Mr. Newton conveyed the child to Providence Hospital, where more antidotes were given. The little one is now doing well.

Appropriated the Proceeds.

Edward Washington, colored, was tried in Judge Kimball's court this morning on a charge of theft. It was alleged that he stole a check for $16.25, the property of John Maher. The latter is employed as railroad switchman at Maryland avenue and 41/2 street southwest, and he asked the and 1% street southwest, and he asked the colored man to get the check cashed for him. He did as requested, but falled to return the money. Detectives McNamee, Browne and Flather arrested Washington. Judge Kimball held the prisoner guilty and gave him sixty days in jail. He was given an additional sixty days in default of restitution.

Appeal for Books.

An appeal has been made to the Army and Navy League for donations of books for the circulating library in Manila, of which Mrs. Greenleaf, wife of the chief surgeon, is president. The library is for the use of the army, navy and others. WITH MUSIC AND GLITTER.

Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Circus Parades Through the City. Early this morning an old colored man sat on the curbstone, with a news-paper unfolded on her lap. She had brought her lunch-perhaps it was her breakfast-with her. There were a number of her kinspeople of all ages gathered about her, and they heard with rapt attention as she put her finger on a paragraph and oracularly announced: "De excitement commences at 9 o'clock

"De excitement commences at 9 o'clock sharp—an' dey tells me 'Mancipation day ain't a suckumstance to it."

It was considerably after 9 when the circus parade passed the party, but they were all on hand to welcome it with ardent enthusiasm, when with the blare of trumpets and the tinkling of cymbals the street pageant of the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circus passed over the thoroughfares of the capital city this morning. Promptly two hours late it delighted the enthusiastic heart of the small boy—and even those not quite so young and unsophisticated—with its myriad features, all strangely familiar and yet so new. The company carried by Forepaugh and the Sells Brothers numbers between 650 and 700 persons, not including Forepaugh and the Sells Brothers numbers between 650 and 700 persons, not including ten managers, eighteen superintendents, twenty members of the executive staff and fourteen agents. There are 250 performers, over 400 horses and ponies, besides the menagerie, so that from this brief summing up of the strength of the show some idea may be gained by those who were not able to be on the streets of the size of the parade this morning. There was but one drawback to the show as seen this morning. The animal cages were not, with but few The animal cages were not, with but few exceptions, left open, and this displeased the younger contingent mightily. However, there were enough features to occupy the mind to the exclusion of this part of the parade, and some special features which are worthy of separate enumeration. These comprised a llon reposing: restfully, but watchfully, on the top of one of the fine wagons, with an air of utter disdain for those around and under him; the fine stock, not only in racing form, but also in heavy draught animals, and the clown band that made such a hit in New York with its imitation of John Phillp Sousa's musical aggregation. This latter feature was perhaps the most enjoyable one of the street show. Besides these there was nothing that is not to be seen in any circus parade, except that everything was in first-class shape. The elephants, perhaps, excited a little more comment than is usually the case on account of the recent killing of Dick, one of the favorite elephants in the show, in New York a few days ago on account of his increasing bad temper, which gave rise to certain speculations as to what one of these beats would do should be take it into his head to wander through Washington on his own hook. A magnificent tiger, who appeared even a little more restless than usual, appeared to really want to make such an excursion, but the stoutness of the bars on the open sides of his cage allayed any apprehension that might rise in this particular.

When the doors opened for the regular performance this afternoon at the grounds at North Capitol and L streets there was The animal cages were not, with but fev at North Capitol and L streets there was such a crowd as is seldom seen except on such a crowd as is seldom seen except on just such occasions as this, the opening performance of a big circus. Although the doors opened an hour before the show began, the wait for those who were first on the ground did not prove tiresome, as the excellent band carried by Forepaugh and Sells whiled away the time with stirring selections. At this performance, too, the impersonation of Sousa and his band by the clowns of the show excited no end of laughter. The program was a long one, but it was divided in an intelligent manner and had only the inevitable perplexities that the had only the inevitable perplexities that the effort to bestow equal attention on a multitude of rings and stages always engenders. It is safe to say that a majority of the spectators had stiff necks when they reached home. But it was enjoyable in reacned home. But it was enjoyable in every detail.

One of the entertainers connected with the circus, B. E. Murphy, was originally introduced to the world as a political novelty. When campaigning was hot just before the presidential of the control of the cont presidential election it occurred to the se retary of Mr. Mark Hanna that a campaign stump singer would be a novelty, and Murphy was engaged at a "top-liner" salary to chant ditties which would impress economic arguments and at the same time amuse the crowd. He had great and enthusiastic audiences all through Illinois and Ohio, and immediately after his retirement from service as a campaign troubadour was engaged by Forepaugh and Sells Brothers. Although he no longer sings of politics, he is one of the hits of the show.

The Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circus is probably one of the largest shows of its character that has been in this city. When unfolded and in shape for business it coverseight acres of ground with canvas, the seating capacity in the main tent being over retary of Mr. Mark Hanna that a campaig ing capacity in the main tent being over 16,000. The performances are given in three rings and on two elevated stages, while the hippodrome track is longer than in any other amusement institution of its kind. The expenses of a show of this character vary, but for this show the figures average $7,000 daily. One feature that will be welcomed by those who may attend the performances is a force of detectives, employed by the company to protect their patrons from ticket sharpers and disreputable characters of all kinds. The performance tonight will begin at 8 o'clock, but in order to accommodate the crowds and inorder to accommodate the crowds and in-sure a comfortable entrance for those who may happen to come late the doors will be thrown open at 7 o'clock.

The W. C. T. U. Asks That Obscene Pictures Be Prohibited.

A petition in behalf of the District of Columbia W. C. T. U., signed by Mrs. Clinton Smith, president, and Mrs. Emma S. Shelton, secretary, was today presented to the Commissioners, praying for the prohibition of displays of obscene posters on billboards of the city. The petition recites:

"In view of the fact that the billboards of our beautiful city are defiled with obscene pictures, which help to develop the lower nature of our youth and fill the mother's heart with alarm, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this District does most earnestly request the honorable Commissioners and the superintendent of police to use their authority by having these boards cleared of these impure pictures and to prevent their reappearance. Today, while thousands of our public school children are on the streets, they are being taught lessons in impurity from these pictures.

"As the law requires that posters must pass under your scrutiny before being displayed, we believe these objectionable pictures have not been submitted for your observation and criticism." mother's heart with alarm, the Woman's

The Bad Lands His Topic. A large audience assembled at the Universalist Church last evening to hear Mr. N. H. Darton of the U. S. geological survey lecture on "The Bad Lands of South Dakota." Mr. Darton illustrated his talk with a profusion of fine lantern slides, which showed even more plainly than words the weird beauty of the country. He followed the lecture by an exhibition of slides made the lecture by an exhibition of slides made by the process of color photography and briefly explained the process. The beauty of coloring and the fidelity to nature were appreciated by the audience, and one par-ticular view, a glorious sunset in crimson and gold, was greeted with round after round of applause. This lecture was the closing one of a course of complimentary entertainments given jointly by the Capital Camera Club and the Optimist Club.

That Is Why Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures When Others Fail.

Unequaled For All Blood Diseases and Stomach Troubles.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar in combinathough sarsaparnia is peculiar in combina-tion, proportion and process, peculiar in its actual merit and in its great record of cures. It cures a wider range of diseases than any other medicine, effecting marvelous results where other remedies fail to do any good whatever. It conquers scroftal in its worst forms, salt rheum, cruptions, dyspepsia, rheumatism and catarrh.

Breaking Out— "Hood's Sarsaparilla breaking out on my neck and I have not been bothered with "t since." THOMAS W. SHANKS, Ford's Store, Maryland. Stomach Disorders- "I have found Hood's Sarsaparilla the best medicine for stomach disorders, dyspepsia and that tired feeling. Every dose seems to invigorate the system." F. T.
LOCKHART, Elizabeth, W. Va.
